Midwest Clinical & Translational Research Meeting

OUR REQUEST: The leadership of the Central Society for Clinical and Translational Research (CSCTR) and the Midwestern Section of the American Federation for Medical Research (MWAfMR) respectfully request your support to sponsor travel awards for trainee or junior faculty attendees. Through your contribution, young investigators, fellows, and associate/assistant professors will have access to financial support in order to attend and present their research to leaders in their fields.

ABOUT THE MEETING: The 2023 Midwest Clinical & Translational Research Meeting will comprise of presentations about clinical research techniques and new research findings in cardiology, gastroenterology, pulmonary and critical care, hematology and oncology, endocrinology, nephrology, infectious disease, allergy, and health care research. This is one of the few multi-specialty meetings with a broad focus where the attendees can learn about research techniques used in other medical specialties and apply those techniques to their own research. It will be held April 23-24 at Chicago's Hyatt at McCormick Place.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: Participants at the Midwest Clinical & Translational Research Meeting will acquire knowledge into clinical research techniques and new findings in various aspects of internal medicine and other fields. At the completion of the meeting, participants should be able to:

- Recognize the value of new research techniques;
- Describe new research findings in cardiology, gastroenterology, pulmonary and critical care, hematology and oncology, nephrology, infectious disease, allergy, immunology and rheumatology;
- Explain the diagnosis and management of diseases and disorders across various sub-specialties of medicine.

NEXT STEPS: We appreciate your consideration and ask you to take the next step by submitting the agreement. Award includes one night hotel stay at the meeting hotel/Hyatt ($300+ value), and aid in offsetting additional travel expenses.

Each Travel Award is $500 and can be sponsored in the following manner:
